

Avesis Advantage Plus Vision Plan Savings Examples

With the Avesis Advantage Plus Vision Plan, members can save significantly on the cost of vision care services and materials. The samples below will provide typical savings based on the average national retail cost for each item listed. Savings may vary depending on optical options, geographic region, or provider selection. This plan may also require voluntary monthly premiums which will offset savings. In addition, co-pays may apply for vision examination and materials (frames and spectacle lenses).

	Avesis Members Pay	Non-Avesis Members Pay $335
Vision Examination National Average Retail Cost $60	$0	Avesis Members Save... $265
Standard Progressive Lenses National Average Retail Cost $150	$70
Frames National Average Retail Cost $125	$0

Frame retail cost is calculated using a $50 wholesale allowance. Frames from participating Wal-Mart locations are covered up to a $68 retail value.

Avesis offers a variety of tier options with each plan design. Members may choose coverage for themselves as well as eligible family members. The sample below outlines savings for optical services and materials for a family of three.
