

Crossing Guards Permanent and Substitutes Needed

Do you have an upbeat personality?
Do you enjoy interacting with children?
Do you like being outdoors?

The McKinney Independent School District needs Crossing Guards and Crossing Guard Substitutes that can work at various locations throughout MISD as needed. School Crossing Guards escort students en route to and from school safely across various streets and or intersections.

Great opportunity for retirees who like to keep active and be a community helper

Stay at home moms can make a little extra money and still be with their children

We provide on the job training and the safety equipment and gear needed

Great job for a local College Student needing to make extra money and not work long hours
